

CONTINUING EDUCATION GRANT 2018-2019

K-12 Teachers may apply for three college workshop credits offered through Gonzaga University. The course title is Understanding and Supporting Students in Trauma offered by Ady M. Wissel, Ph.D. Director, School Counseling Program at Gonzaga University. The course instruction will begin in February and conclude in April. (Meeting times are currently set for Saturday mornings.) See course description below:

This dynamic course will focus on understanding and supporting students who have experienced trauma. Given the diversity of students in our Catholic schools, we must better recognize their contexts, history, and needs in order to serve them well. Participants will engage in rich discussions, be challenged to try new strategies in their classrooms, and be invited to share their experiences/ideas with others in the course.

Please complete the application and submit online or mail to: Nazareth Guild PO BOX 76, Spokane WA, 99210 no later than November 30, 2018. All approved applicants must attend the course spring of 2019, The cost of the three college workshop credits will be paid for by Nazareth Guild and Gonzaga University. After required course work is completed, a Gonzaga University transcript will be provided and all passing credits may be applied to determine the pay scale grade.
